BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE

Please briefly present the partner organisation and the activities, experience of the organisation in the areas relevant for this application.

The Federation of Youth Clubs of Armenia (FYCA) was established on the 10th of November, 1999.

Today FYCA unites more than 100 youth professional and regional clubs, centres, initiatives, youth groups, and organizations throughout Armenia, thus becoming the largest youth organization in the country.

FYCA's mission is to raise the role of the young generation in the processes of strengthening the civil society by uniting youth clubs.

FYCA's aims are:

- advocating the benefits of open youth work
- organizing seminars and joint trainings of youth workers
- programs of youth exchange
- encouraging active involvement of young people in their communities
- promoting youth work in the region
- developing youth information
- counseling and research centres
- promoting intercultural learning and sustainable development.

FYCA closely cooperates with dozens of foreign and international organizations and has numerous stable partner institutions. FYCA is a member of the ECYC, YEN, YEE, NYCA, MIJARC Europe, IYNF, WostAYN, WAC, RYE, Caucasus PEACE coalition, and many other international organizations and networks.

Fields of interest: Intercultural learning, international cooperation, non-formal education, open youth work, development and promotion of youth clubs, human rights education, democracy, civic participation, social inclusion, gender equality, youth work in conflict areas, peace-building, regional integration, tolerance, development of entrepreneurship skills, club management, ecology, healthy lifestyle, sustainable development, tourism development, volunteerism, research, and publications.

The programs we work in: Erasmus+/ESC, Youth exchanges, support, National youth policy review, Research on youth, UNITED campaigns, seminars, training courses, study visits, campaigns, conferences, festivals, short and long-term educational programs in Armenia and abroad.

As the largest youth organization of Armenia, the Federation of Youth Clubs of Armenia (FYCA) deals with topics that are interesting for the member clubs and youth in general. During the last decades, FYCA has implemented dozens of local, national, and international projects focused on the topic of non-formal education, open youth work, human rights education, civic active citizenship, youth participation, democracy, regional integration, social inclusion of youngsters living in rural areas and so on. According to the data of the last five years, FYCA is leading with the quantity of implemented international youth programs, providing an opportunity to thousands of young people to participate in youth projects in Armenia and abroad.

While carrying out both local and international youth initiatives and projects, FYCA pays huge attention to implementing them through non-formal educational techniques, which are extremely useful and interactive approaches for working with youth in general. FYCA periodically manages sessions for empowering its youth workers with new, valuable competencies regarding new non-formal educational tools and manuals. FYCA has a professional staff experienced in national and international levels.
